

Gujarat State, India - Investment Promotion Seminar

Gujarat State is located in the west side of India, which is the destination of large scale investment in recent years by Japanese companies such as Honda and Suzuki, as well as local and foreign companies, and also where industrial clusters have been developing in various sectors including auto and chemical industries. Prime Minister Narendra Modi previously served as Chief Minister of the state and has close connections with the state. Gujarat is also renowned for having a sound infrastructure and investment environment, an attraction both domestically and abroad. In this seminar, high government officials will explain Mandal Industrial Park which is designed exclusively for Japanese companies, as well as advantages of investment into the state, and information on the new Industrial Park which is under development. On this occasion, with the presence of Chief Secretary from Government of Gujarat (top level of administration) and other high-ranking officials who are responsible for investment, we cordially invite you to the seminar.
